

Data protection declaration

OELCHECK app

General information

The following information provides a simple overview of what happens to your personal data when you visit our app.

Definition of personal data: All data with which you can be personally identified. You can find detailed information on the subject of data protection in our data protection declaration below.

1) Name and contact details

This data protection information applies to data processing when using our OELCHECK app.

Responsibility:

OELCHECK GmbH

Kerschelweg 28

83098 Brannenburg

Germany

Email: info@oelcheck.de

Telephone: +49 8034 9047-0

Fax: +49 8034 9047-47

Our data protection officer is located at the address mentioned above, you can contact the data protection officer there or if you write a mail to datenschutz@oelcheck.de.

You can contact our data protection officer at any time if you have questions about the data protection law or your rights as a person affected.

2) Permissions of the OELCHECK app

OELCHECK requires the following authorizations from you:

1. INTERNET (retrieve data from the Internet / access to all networks):

Is required to load the samples or machine data.

2. ACCESS_FINE_LOCATION (exact location):

This enables machines to be displayed in the vicinity.

The authorization system corresponds to the rights of Android and iOS.

For iOS and Android, you are explicitly asked for consent to certain rights so that you can make a decision here.

3) Use of location data

In our app, you have the option of automatically recognizing the wind turbine in question based on your location, which makes it easier to collect the data.

The location data (e.g. display of the current position) is usually used on your mobile device. The accuracy is limited to 3-5 meters. This data is only used to record the wind turbine.

To use the location services, they must be activated in your mobile operating system. As soon as these are activated and the app is started for the first time, access to the location information is requested. The confirmation means that the app is allowed to access your location information.

You can deactivate the access of the respective app to your location in the settings of your mobile device.

4) Evaluation of usage data

Anonymised usage data is evaluated for the safe operation and further development of the OELCHECK app. However, this data cannot be linked to your identity. We have no way of assigning this data to you and we do not combine this data with other data sources.

When using the OELCHECK app, data is saved in a log file for statistical and backup purposes.

We only collect the following data for a period of one month:

- Name of the file accessed
- Date and time of access
- Amount of data transferred
- Report whether the retrieval was successful
- If access is successful: anonymized IP address of the accessing host system
- If the request is unsuccessful, the complete IP address is saved for the purpose of troubleshooting and security

5) Google Analytics for Firebase and Firebase Crashlytics

The OELCHECK app optionally uses Google Analytics for Firebase and Firebase Crashlytics.

The information generated about the use of the OELCHECK app is transmitted with an anonymized IP address to a Google server in the USA and stored there. The IP anonymization function in Analytics sets the last octet for IPv4 user IP addresses and the last 80 bits in memory for IPv6 addresses. As a result, the exact IP address of the user is not saved.

Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the OELCHECK app in order to compile reports on the activity for the app operators. Google may also transfer this information to third parties. If the user agrees to the use of Google Analytics for Firebase and Firebase Crashlytics in the OELCHECK app, he declares his consent to the processing of the data collected about him by Google in the manner described above and for the aforementioned purpose.

This usage data forms the basis for statistical, anonymous evaluations, so that trends can be identified, on the basis of which the offer can be improved accordingly.

The integration takes place on the basis of your express consent acc. Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. a and Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. f GDPR. It is done to make our application more user-friendly and interesting. This is a legitimate interest in the sense of the aforementioned regulation.

6) Disclosure of data to third parties

Data that has been logged when using the OELCHECK app is generally only passed on to third parties if this is required by law, determined by a court decision or the disclosure is necessary for legal or criminal prosecution in the event of attacks on the DWD internet infrastructure. It will not be passed on for other non-commercial or commercial purposes.

7) Rights of data subjects

You have the right:

- to revoke your consent given to us at any time in accordance with Art. 7 Para. 3 GDPR. As a result, we can no longer continue the data processing based on this consent in the future;
- to request information about your personal data processed by us in accordance with Art. 15 GDPR.
